Practical 12:-

NotebookLM Project

Aim:-

To create revision notes using NotebookLM.

Objectives:-

- To generate a study guide
- To create flashcards

Materials Required:-

- NotebookLM

Procedure:-

1. Create a NotebookLM project by starting a new project in NotebookLM to organize your materials and AI-generated outputs in one workspace.
2. Upload two resources by adding documents or sources to the project so the AI can analyze and reference them.
3. Generate a study guide using NotebookLM's tools to create a structured guide summarizing the key concepts from the uploaded resources.
4. Generate flashcards by automatically creating flashcards that highlight important facts, terms, or ideas for easier revision.
5. Review accuracy by carefully checking the summaries and flashcards to ensure all information is correct and reflects the original resources.
6. Take screenshots by capturing images of the study guide and flashcards to document your work or include them in your submission.
